

Witte, Maude E.

Maude Witte

Sept 25-44

Maude E. Witte of 748 Western, Petaluma, California, recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States army nurse corps, has been ordered to active duty and will report to the Fort Lewis General hospital, Fort Lewis, Washington, for basic training, it was announced today at the headquarters of Major General William E. Shedd, commanding general of the Ninth Service Command at Fort Douglas, Utah. Following six weeks of basic training, Lt. Witte will be assigned to Hammond General hospital, Modesto, California.

Maude Witte May 28 '45

Lt. Maude E. Witte, with the army nurse corps, stationed at the army hospital in Modesto, is having a 10-day leave visiting her sister, Miss Augusta Witte, 748 Western avenue. Lt. Witte was night superintendent at the Santa Rosa General hospital for a time and also assistant superintendent of nurses at the Sonoma County hospital.

* * *

Maude E. Witte 4/17/46

Home after serving as a lieutenant in the army Nurses' corps is Maude E. Witte, a sister of Augusta and Helen Witte of this city. She served two years as an army nurse, six months of which were spent overseas in army hospitals in Manila and Japan.

After completing her basic training she was assigned to the Hammond General hospital in Modesto. Returning to the states It. Witte stopped at Washington where she visited with her brother, Wm. Witte. She will perhaps take a position in a veterans' hospital later. The Petaluma girl was graduated from the Franklin hospital, San Francisco, and took a post graduate course at the Children's hospital.